CIRSA EXPANDS ITS ACTIVITIES IN COLOMBIA

Cirsa has completed the acquisition of the Colombian company Unidelca through its Colombian subsidiary Winner Group. Unidelca operates a total of 49 casinos in Colombia including 8 traditional ones and 41 electronic ones. The company has 25 years' experience in the gaming and leisure industry and achieved operating profits of 16 million dollars in 2009.

Unidelca's facilities are spacious and incorporate cutting-edge design. Games are customised and have been adapted to the various customer segments. Cirsa's knowledge and experience in the casino world, both in Colombia and internationally, has now been added to this to provide a unique and different gaming and leisure experience, available throughout the country.

With this acquisition, Cirsa has consolidated its position as the leading gaming and leisure company in the country operating 17 traditional casinos and 53 electronic casinos with 250 gaming tables, 6,500 gaming machines and 2,700 personnel.

Cirsa has further strengthened their position as the leading casino operator in Latin America with 29 traditional casinos and 89 electronic casinos.

Cirsa Gaming Corp. is a world leader in the gaming and leisure sector. It is part of the NORTIA Corporation and operates 34 traditional casinos, 89 electronic casinos, 62,000 gaming machines, 90 bingo halls, 190 gaming halls, 91 sports betting shops and 926 video lottery terminals.
