

As of 14 July, Antonio Grau joined the financial management team of CIRSA Group. Antonio Grau has extensive experience, having served for over 15 years as CFO for multinational corporations such as Grupo Planeta, Vueling, Privalia and Celsa. Until June 2020, he held the position of CEO at Factor Energía.

For an initial period, which will last until October 2020, Antonio Grau's role will be to support the financial department, working closely with the current CFO, David Royo, to gain a deep understanding of the entire Group's performance. After this initial period, Antonio Grau will take up the position of CFO for the CIRSA Group, replacing David Royo, who announced a few months ago that he would be stepping down from his current role for personal reasons. After leaving the role of CFO, David Royo will go on to support the Group's operations in Mexico as well as collaborating on various corporate projects.

David Royo joined the Group in 2000, where he has held various positions before taking up the CFO role in 2004.
